COURSE DESCRIPTION

Desperate times call for desperate measures. This course offers a foundation of the migration process for asylum seekers, refugees, and immigrants. Participants will review legislation that impact resettlement while gaining insight on refugees' experiences and psychological well-being. Activities in the training are designed to assist providers in understanding the complexities related to migration while improving outcomes for this population through skills and integration.

Learning Objectives

1. Delineate the differences and similarities between asylum seekers, refugees, and immigrants.
2. Critically evaluate and differentiate major legislation and its impact on the migration process and their application to direct practice.
3. Demonstrate awareness and principles of psychological well-being and socio-emotional health of refugees.
4. Identify culturally responsive practice and sensitivity to working with migrant populations.

CONTINUING EDUCATION

This workshop can be certified by NASW Wisconsin Chapter and satisfies Continuing Education requirements set by State of Wisconsin Department of Safety and Professional Services. Participants practicing as licensed Counselors, Social Workers and Therapists will receive 4 Continuing Education Hours (CEUs) or .4 Continuing Education Units (CEUs) upon completion of the course.
